COMPETITION OUTLINES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Dr. László Tóth
President
European Judo Union

Dear judofamily,

Welcome to the first European Championships of 2023 in Slovenia.

Judo is more than sport. This tournament is a great opportunity to perform our judo skills and meet our friends, and once again to spend time in close communication is also an opportunity to further improve friendships and mutual understanding of Judo for those judokas, who started their path on the tatami and continued it in other spheres of activities but who carry the spirit of Judo throughout their lives.

I am thankful to the Slovenian Judo Federation and its President for hosting this event and I am sure that their hospitable approach to the organization will result in a warm atmosphere and unforgettable memories for the participants, their parents, spectators and media officers who are following this fascinating event.

Yours in judo

Lovrencij Galuf
President
Slovenian Judo Federation

We are proud and delighted to have been selected to host such a large and important event as the European Veterans Championships. We are organising it in the spirit of celebrating 70th anniversary of Slovenian Judo Federation. Over the years we successfully organized European Junior Championship, Senior European Championship, European Cadet Championship and World Junior Championship. We are also affiliated with the organisation of the European Kata Championships which was held twice under our organisation.

And why European Championships for Veterans?

Because we want to show that judo is not only about fighting and hard work, but also about building our relationships, mutual understanding and values that unite and connect us all. Judo is a sport that we cherished already as children and especially now as we are at the age where we are wiser and when we also have other priorities in life, but judo stays with us in our hearts forever.

We want to invite you to the beautiful surroundings of Slovenia's small town Podcetrtek and known spa Terme Olimia and offer you not only great judo days but also the relaxation and socialising that I'm sure every one of us deserves at some point.

See you soon and welcome.
